Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Tyndall Federal Credit Union

What we do

How does Tyndall Federal Credit Union protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Tyndall Federal Credit Union collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or deposit money
- pay your bills or apply for a loan
- use your credit card or Check Card (debit)

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness.
- affiliates from using your information to market to you.
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you.

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
